

25th  International Meeting of Young
Linguists

6th–7th May 2024 in Olomouc

LANGUAGE, FACTS, REALITY

You are cordially invited to the annual International Meeting of Young Linguists.

The conference boasts 25 years' tradition, which started in 2000 at the Institute of the Czech Language of the Academy of Sciences, Prague, and has been continued since 2001 at Palacký University Olomouc.

This year focuses on the following questions and topics:

- Does language communicate the facts of extra-linguistic reality successfully?
- What is the reality represented by the language of media and social nets?
- What is the present-day status of the theory of linguistic relativity?
- What is the role of political correctness in representation of extra-linguistic facts?
- What is the role of language economy?
- How does linguistic description portray the character of languages?
- What is the linguistic depiction of the world we live in?

In addition to the main programme, the conference includes the following workshops:

- Diachronic workshop
- Linguistic creativity
- Czech as a foreign language
- Language and cognition

The event hosts the 13th year of the undergraduate students' conference
STUDENTS AND SCIENCE: Linguistics (in Czech only).

The presenters unable to attend the conference in person are welcome to present their papers online.
